Press Release

Bengard Manufacturing - Winner of the 2009 Advertising Excellence Award.

Bengard Manufacturing Ltd. is pleased to announce that we were chosen as the 2009 winner of the ADVERTISING EXCELLENCE AWARD by Adscore Publication Research. The award was given for the August 2009 issue of National Floor Trends for the "Show your CORK off!" advertisement. The advertisement eye catcher included a sleek sports car made entirely of cork along with pictures of the residential cork mouldings and information about the product (seen below). The award was given for the highest level of recognition achieved by our advertisement. Nearly two thirds of the readers who indicated purchasing influence in the Hardwood Floors/Cork Floors category recalled noticing this ad. We are pleased to be acknowledged for our creativity and innovative products.
